

ALWYN INFANT SCHOOL CHARGING AND REMISSIONS POLICY

Introduction

This policy has been formulated in accordance with the LEA's guidance on charging for school activities.

Aims and Objectives

The aim of this policy is to set out what charges will be levied for activities, what remissions will be implemented and the circumstances under which voluntary contributions will be requested from parents.

Responsibilities

The Governing Body of the school are responsible for determining the content of the policy and the Headteacher for implementation. Any determinations with respect to individual parents will be considered by the Headteacher.

Prohibition of charges

Charges will not be made for the following activities:

- Education provided during school hours (including the supply of any materials, books, instruments or other equipment),
- Education provided outside school hours if it is part of the National Curriculum,
- Tuition for pupils learning to play musical instruments if the tuition is part of the National Curriculum,
- Education provided on any school trip that takes place during school hours,
- Education provided on any school trip outside of school hours if it is part of the National Curriculum,
- Supply teachers to cover for those teachers who are absent from school accompanying pupils on a residential trip,
- Transport provided in connection with an educational trip.

Charges

The following charges may be made:

- The proportionate costs for an individual child of activities wholly or mainly outside school hours (optional extras) to meet the cost for: travel, materials and equipment, non-teaching staff costs, entrance fees and insurance costs
- Breakages and replacements as a result of damages caused wilfully or negligently by pupils
- Extra-curricular activities and school clubs.

Remissions

Children whose parents are in receipt of the following support payments, in addition to having a free school lunch entitlement, may also be entitled to the remission of other charges. The Headteacher will be responsible for any determinations with respect to individual children

The relevant support payments are:

- Income Support
- Income-based Jobseekers Allowance
- Income-related Employment and Support Allowance
- Support from NASS (National Asylum Support Service) under part 6 of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999
- the guarantee element of State Pension Credit
- Child Tax Credit (with no Working Tax Credit) with an annual income of no more than £16,190
- Working Tax Credit run-on
- Universal Credit.

Voluntary Contributions

Parents will be invited to make a voluntary contribution for the following:

- Swimming lessons
- School Trips
- Cost of transport
- Any activity which takes place during school hours
- School equipment

Any contribution is genuinely voluntary and a parent is under no obligation to pay. School pupils will not be treated differently according to whether or not their parents / carers are made any contribution in response to the request.

Activities may not occur if funding is not sufficient.

The responsibility for determining the level of voluntary contribution is delegated to the Headteacher.
