Collecting pupil information

We obtain pupil information via registration forms at the start of each academic year. In addition, when a child joins us from another school, we are sent a secure file containing relevant information.

Pupil data is essential for the schools' operational use. Whilst most of the pupil information provided to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with GDPR we will inform parents/carers at the point of collection, whether they are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if they have a choice in this and we will tell them what they need to do if they do not want to share this information with us

Storing pupil data

We hold pupil data securely for the set amount of time shown in the IRMS 'Information Management Toolkit for Schools' (version 5 Feb 2016) referred to on page 77 of the DfE document 'Data Protection: a toolkit for schools August 2018. Class zoom calls will be stored for six weeks then deleted. They will only be viewed should a concern arise.

All data is transferred securely and held by the DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls, which meet the current government security policy framework.

For more information, please see 'How Government uses your data' section.

Local Authorities

We may be required to share information about our pupils with the local authority to ensure that they can conduct their statutory duties under the Schools Admission Code, including conducting Fair Access Panels.

Requesting access to your personal data

Under GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation), parents/carers and pupils have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for their personal information, or be given access to their child's educational record, they are to contact the school office.

Depending on the lawful basis above, parents/carers/pupils may also have the right to:

- Object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- Object to decisions being taken by automated means
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- A right to seek redress, either through the ICO (Information Commissioner's Office), or through the courts

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, you should raise your concern with us in the first instance or directly to the ICO at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

Withdrawal of consent and the right to lodge a complaint

Where we are processing your personal data with your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you change your mind, or you are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know by contacting the school office.
